Mr. Roger Hilsman
Director of Intelligence and Research
Department of State
Washington, D. C.

Dear Roger:

I forward herewith your personal copies of the Proceedings of the Second Conference on Intelligence Methods of last October and of the supplement thereto. Four additional copies of each document are being sent to INR through the usual distribution channels.

I thank you again for your contribution to the program. I think the Proceedings, thanks to you and Mac Bundy and to those who participated in the discussion, contains about as good an exposition in the intelligence-policy field as any in existence.

I extend warm congratulations to you on your appointment as Assistant Secretary and hope our work together will be as close and pleasant as it always has been.

Sincerely yours,

Ray S. Cline
Deputy Director (Intelligence)
